

Residency information for tax administration agreements

The Government of Canada has approved a tax sharing and administration agreement with the Tłı̨chǫ Government that will co-ordinate the Tłı̨chǫ Income Tax Law with the federal Income Tax Act.

All individuals, including non-Tłı̨chǫ citizens, who are resident on Tłı̨chǫ lands or in the Tłı̨chǫ communities of Behchokò (Rae-Edzo), Whatì (Lac La Martre), Gamètì (Rae Lakes), or Wekweètì (Snare Lake) have to identify themselves by ticking “Yes” in the Residency information for tax administration agreements box on page 1 of the 2005 Income Tax and Benefit Return.

The Canada Revenue Agency will use this information to administer the agreement.

Individuals, including Tłı̨chǫ citizens, who are not residents of Tłı̨chǫ lands or a Tłı̨chǫ community have to tick “No” in the Residency information for tax administration agreements box on page 1 of the 2005 Income Tax and Benefit Return.
