

T1-2019

Canada Workers Benefit

Schedule 6

For 2019, the Canada workers benefit (CWB) replaces and strengthens the working income tax benefit (WITB). The CWB is an enhanced, more accessible, refundable tax credit, that is intended to supplement the earnings of low-income workers. As of the 2019 tax year, you may choose to include or not include tax-exempt income when you calculate the CWB. The benefit has two parts: a basic amount and a disability supplement.

Complete this schedule and attach it to your return to claim the CWB, if you met all of the following conditions in 2019:

- you were a resident of Canada throughout the year
- you earned income from employment or business
- at the end of the year, you were 19 years of age or older, or you resided with your spouse or common-law partner or your child

You cannot claim the CWB for 2019 if any of the following applies to you:

- you were enrolled as a full-time student at a designated educational institution for a total of more than 13 weeks in the year, unless you had an eligible dependant at the end of the year
- you were confined to a prison or similar institution for a period of at least 90 days during the year
- you were exempt from income tax in Canada for a period in the year when you were an officer or servant of another country, such as a diplomat, and you resided in Canada, or you were a family member who resided with such a person, or an employee of such a person at any time in the year

Notes: If you were married or living in a common-law relationship but did not have an eligible spouse (defined below) or an eligible dependant (defined below), complete this schedule using the instructions as if you had neither an eligible spouse nor an eligible dependant.

If you are completing a final return for a deceased person who met the above conditions, you can claim the CWB for that person if the date of death was after June 30, 2019.

Eligible spouse – For the purpose of the CWB, an eligible spouse is a person who meets all the following conditions:

- was your cohabiting spouse or common-law partner on December 31, 2019

- was not enrolled as a full-time student at a designated educational institution for a total of more than 13 weeks in the year, unless they had an eligible dependant at the end of the year
- was not confined to a prison or similar institution for a period of at least 90 days during the year
- was not exempt from income tax in Canada for a period in the year when the person was an officer or servant of another country, such as a diplomat, or a family member who resided with such a person, or an employee of such a person at any time in the year

Eligible dependant – For the purpose of the CWB, an eligible dependant is a person who meets all the following conditions:

- was your or your spouse's or common-law partner's child
- was under 19 years of age and lived with you on December 31, 2019
- was not eligible for the CWB for 2019
