Home Buyers' Plan (HBP) – Cancellation

Part A – Selection

Complete this form to advise us if either of the following situations occurs (check the box that applies to you):

- ☐ A qualifying home or replacement property was not bought or built.
- ☐ I ceased to be a resident of Canada before a qualifying home or replacement property was bought or built.

If you repay your Home Buyers' Plan (HBP) withdrawals to your Registered Retirement Saving Plan (RRSP) by the required date, the amount withdrawn will not have to be included in your income. If you do not repay all of the amounts withdrawn by the required date, the unpaid amounts will have to be included in your income for the year you received the funds. You can make cancellation payments to any of your existing RRSPs, or a new RRSP for yourself. For more information on making cancellation payments and the required dates for repayment(s), go to canada.ca/home-buyers-plan and see "How to cancel participation in the Home Buyers' Plan (HBP)".

If you indicated above that a qualifying home or replacement property was not bought or built and that you were acquiring the home for a related person with a disability or helping a related person with a disability acquire the home, please provide the following information about that person:

First and last name of the person with the disability	Relationship to you	Social insurance number (SIN)

Part B – Identification

First name and initial(s)	Last name		Social insurance number (SIN)
Address		Amount of cancellation payment (attach all receipts)
City	Province or Territory	Postal code	Telephone number

Part C – Certification

I certify that the information given on this form is correct and complete.
