Instructions

- Use this form to report deemed dispositions on the following days:
 - A – For a spousal or common-law partner trust: the day the beneficiary spouse or common-law partner dies
 - B – For a joint spousal or common-law partner trust: the day the settlor or the beneficiary spouse or common-law partner dies, whichever is later
 - C – For an alter ego trust: the day the settlor dies. However, if the trust filed an election not to be considered an alter ego trust, see G below
 - D – For a trust that distributes property to a beneficiary for the beneficiary's capital interest in the trust, and it is reasonable to consider that the distribution was financed by a liability of the trust, and one of the reasons for incurring the liability was to avoid paying tax because of the death of an individual: the day the property was distributed
 - E – If an individual has transferred property (other than Canadian real estate, Canadian resource property, Canadian timber resource property, property of a business the trust carried on through a permanent establishment in Canada, or certain pension interests or rights) after December 17, 1999, to a trust for the transferor's spouse or common-law partner, and it is reasonable to conclude that the individual transferred the property while planning to emigrate from Canada: the day the individual stops being a resident of Canada
 - F – For a trust to which property was transferred by an individual (other than a trust) and the transfer did not result in a change in beneficial ownership of that property and no person (other than the individual) or partnership has any absolute or contingent right as a beneficiary under the trust: the day the individual dies
 - G – For trusts other than those described in A, B, C, and F: the day that is 21 years after the day the trust was created
 - H – For all trusts: on every 21st anniversary of the day established above in A, B, C, F, and G
- See "Types of trusts" in Guide T4013, T3 Trust Guide, for the definitions of
 - spousal or common-law partner trust
 - joint spousal or common-law partner trust
 - alter ego trust
- Do not report a deemed disposition on any property that was actually disposed of in the tax year, unless this was for a spousal or common-law partner trust, a joint spousal or common-law partner trust, or an alter ego trust. For more information, see "Form T1055, Summary of Deemed Dispositions" in Chapter 3 of the T3 Trust Guide.
- When a trust (including a deemed resident trust) ceases to be resident in Canada, the trust will be deemed to have disposed of its property immediately before that time. These deemed dispositions should be reported on Schedule 1. For more information, see "Capital dispositions – Rules for trusts" in Chapter 3 of the T3 Trust Guide.
- After 2015, if a particular beneficiary under a trust described in A, B, C or F above dies in the tax year, there is a deemed tax year-end of the trust on the day established above in A, B, C or F.
