- Use this schedule to calculate the partnership's British Columbia mining exploration tax credit. If you are a member of a partnership, other than a specified member as defined in subsection 248(1) of the federal Income Tax Act, calculate your proportionate share of the credit in Part 5.
- The partnership's tax credit is determined as if the partnership were an eligible taxpayer and the qualified mining exploration expenses that the partnership may claim are those incurred by the partnership after March 31, 2003 and before January 1, 2020. Further information is available on Form T88, British Columbia Mining Exploration Tax Credit (Individuals) and Schedule 421, British Columbia Mining Exploration Tax Credit (2007 and later tax years) (Corporations).
- This schedule must be attached to your T1 General Return or T2 – Corporation Income Tax Return.

Part 1 – Exploration information

Mineral resources that qualify for the credit include the following mineral and other deposits: base or precious metal, coal, bituminous sands, oil shale, ammonite gemstone, calcium chloride, kaolin, diamond, gypsum, halite, sylvite, silica extracted from sandstone or quartzite, and deposits certified by the Minister of Natural Resources that have been extracted as an industrial mineral contained in a non-bedded deposit.

Part 2 – Qualified mining exploration expenses

Qualified expenses are expenses that the partnership incurred after March 31, 2003, and before January 1, 2020, for goods and services that are all or substantially all provided in British Columbia. Expenses must be reasonable in the circumstances and must not have been claimed by another person, other than an eligible taxpayer that is a member of the partnership, in relation to the mining exploration tax credit.

- Enter in column 1, by activity, the total qualified mining exploration expenses incurred from January 1, 2007, for the mineral title listed in Part 1.
- Use column 2 to enter only the amounts of your expenses from column 1 that were incurred from February 21, 2007, in the prescribed Mountain Pine Beetle affected areas.
