

Request by a Non-Resident of Canada for a Certificate of Compliance Related to the Disposition of Canadian Resource or Timber Resource Property, Canadian Real Property (Other than Capital Property), or Depreciable Taxable Canadian Property

Instructions – T2062A

All legislative references are to the Canadian Income Tax Act.

When and How to file the Form

Use this form if you are a non-resident of Canada to give notice of the proposed disposition of, or the completed disposition of, Canadian resource property, Canadian real property (other than capital property), Canadian timber resource property, or depreciable Canadian taxable property. A disposition of taxable Canadian property includes any interest or option for such property, whether or not the property exists.

Use Form T2062 for the proposed or completed disposition of other taxable Canadian property, including the gain on the disposition of depreciable property. If both forms T2062A and T2062 are required for a disposition, the forms must be filed together.

If you are reporting a proposed or completed disposition of Canadian resource property, you must also complete Form T2062A, Schedule 1, Disposition of Canadian Resource Property by Non-Residents.

File a separate T2062A for each disposition or proposed disposition. However, if you are disposing of, or proposing to dispose of, several properties to the same purchaser at the same time, only one T2062A is required for all the properties. A separate T2062A must be filed by each person indicating an interest in a joint tenancy, tenancy in common, or co-ownership.

We issue a certificate of compliance after tax is paid or security acceptable to the Minister is submitted. You may have to file a Canadian income tax return to report the disposition of property listed on this form. Final settlement of the tax liability is made when you file your Canadian income tax return. Failure to attach the certificate of compliance to your income tax return may result in a delay in processing. For further information related to the filing requirements, please refer to the CRA website.

Completing the Form

Send this notice along with all supporting documents (see list attached), to the Centre of Expertise (CoE) for the area where the property is located. If there is more than one property and the properties are located in several areas and more than one CoE is affected, the notification should be sent to the CoE where the majority of the properties are located. If the property is real property, the CoE is determined based on the property's legal or municipal address. If the property is shares or assets in a business, the CoE is determined based on the head office address of the corporation whose shares are being disposed of, or where the business is located. If the property is a capital interest in an estate or a trust (pursuant to the distribution of capital), the CoE is determined by the location of the trustee. The CoEs are listed on the CRA's website: canada.ca/cra-non-residents-dispositions.

Vendor Information

Country of residence – Indicate the country where you normally, customarily, or routinely live.

Identification number – Enter the appropriate identification number. This will ensure that security or payment made for tax is credited to the correct account. Identification numbers must be used when filing your Canadian income tax return and on all correspondence with us.

Social insurance number (SIN) – applies if an individual was formerly a resident or a deemed resident of Canada.

Individual Tax Number (ITN) – is a number assigned to a non-resident individual who filed a Canadian income tax return in previous years.

Subsidiary ledger number – is a number assigned to a non-resident individual who has made a remittance but does not have a Canadian tax account number.

Business number (BN) – is a registration number for businesses such as corporations, partnerships, and sole proprietorships.

Trust account number – is a number assigned to a trust that filed a Canadian income tax return in previous years.

If you do not have a SIN or ITN, please complete Form T1261, Application for a Canada Revenue Agency Individual Tax Number (ITN) for Non-Residents, available on the Internet at canada.ca/taxes. Send it to the CRA, to the address indicated on the Form T1261, in advance of the disposition if possible, to avoid delays in processing.

Applying for a BN

Complete Form RC1, Request for a Business Number (BN). Form RC1 and our pamphlet, The Business Number and Your Canada Revenue Agency Accounts, are available on the Internet at: canada.ca/taxes.

Send the completed RC1 with a copy of the certification of incorporation to the Centre of Expertise where you filed the Form T2062.

Details of property – If a disposition includes more than one property, attach a piece of paper providing the details for each property. All amounts must be in Canadian dollars.

Property jurisdiction – include the city/municipality, province/territory, and postal code for the street address requested below in "Property description".

Property description – Include the following details:

Depreciable property, real property (other than capital property) and timber resource property – street address, plan number, lot number, registration number, serial number, and use of property (rental, lease, or business); a written description and the applicable class of asset according to Schedule II of the Income Tax Regulations.

Resource property – well or mine location, legal description, and street address.

Gross Proceeds of Disposition

Enter the gross proceeds of disposition from the sale of the property. Enter the vendor's share of the gross proceeds in Column (1).

Proceeds of disposition (Column 1) and Capital Cost (Column 2)

For dispositions of depreciable property, enter amounts in columns (1) and (2) and enter the lesser of columns (1) and (2) in column (3).

For dispositions of timber resource property and real property (other than capital property), enter the proceeds of disposition in column (1) and in column (3).

Undepreciated capital cost or cost amount (Column 4)

For dispositions of depreciable property and timber resource property, use the undepreciated capital cost. For dispositions of real property (other than capital property), use the cost amount.

Exemption (Column 6)

If you are claiming an exemption from tax, such as under a tax treaty or a principal residence exemption, enter the exempt portion in column (6). If the amount claimed is pursuant to a tax treaty, the vendor has to certify that they are resident in the stated country of residence and, if the tax treaty contains a limitation on benefits provision (e.g., Article XXIX A of the Canada – US treaty) the vendor has to provide written certification that they meet the requirements of the provision in relation to the property described in this form. Please attach a note detailing any calculations involved in determining the exemption amount.

Note: You cannot claim outlays and expenses related to the disposition of property, including real estate commissions, brokerage fees, and legal and notary fees, when you file this form. However, you can claim these amounts when you file your Canadian income tax return.

Certification

This area should be completed and signed by:

- the vendor in the case of an individual;
- an authorized officer in the case of a corporation;
- the trustee, executor or administrator if the person is filing the statement for a trust; or
- an authorized partner in the case of a partnership.

- a calculation of the ACB.

Partnership continuing income right

If the property is a continuing income right, include:

- the calculation of the ACB; and
- documents to support the partner's share of income.

Tax Treaty Exemptions

If you are claiming an exemption under a tax treaty, you have to give us proof of residency.

The vendor has to provide sufficient information to establish that they met the requirement of the treaty and that they are eligible for tax treaty benefits under the treaty. In this regard, the vendor should complete and submit Form NR301, Declaration of eligibility for benefits under a tax treaty for a non-resident taxpayer, Form NR302, Declaration of eligibility for benefits under a tax treaty for a partnership with non-resident partners, Form NR303, Declaration of eligibility for benefits under a tax treaty under a hybrid entity, or equivalent information. For partnerships and hybrid entities, each partner or member in respect of whom treaty benefits are claimed must provide a summary declaration to the CRA as indicated below.

Individuals should include:

- copies of their most recent income tax returns from the treaty country; and
- a letter from the tax authority in the treaty country confirming their residency status.

Corporations should include:

- a copy of their charter;
- a letter from the tax authority in the treaty country confirming their residency status; and
- copies of their most recent income tax returns from the treaty country.

Hybrid entities should include:

- complete and submit NR303, Declaration of eligibility for benefits under a tax treaty for hybrid entity, and Worksheet B or equivalent information; or
- proof of the election to be taxed as a corporation.

Note: A treaty exemption can only be claimed on the portion of income derived by residents of the United States who are entitled to treaty benefits under paragraph 6 of Article IV of the Canada – United States tax treaty and to whom paragraph 7 of the same article does not apply. These persons must also meet the limitation on benefits provision of Article XXIX A.

Partnerships should include:

- Complete and submit NR302, Declaration of eligibility for benefits under a tax treaty for a partnership with non-resident persons; or
- proof of the election to be taxed as a corporation.

Trusts and estates should include:

- a copy of the trust agreement, indenture, or will; and
- a letter from the tax authority in the treaty country confirming the trust's residency status;
- copies of the most recent income tax returns from the treaty country.

Fresh start rule

If you are claiming an exemption under the Canada-US Tax Convention, Article XIII paragraph 9 (Fresh Start Rule), include:

- proof that you were a continuous resident of the United States from September 26, 1980, to the date of sale;
- the value of the property on December 31, 1971 (for property acquired before January 1, 1972);
- the calculation of the exempt portion of the gain accrued to December 31, 1984; or
- an appraisal report for the fair market value of the property on December 31, 1984.

Non arm's length transactions

If the transaction is between non arm's length parties, include:

- an appraisal report determining the fair-market value of the property at the time of disposition; or
- a letter of opinion from an appraiser or agent.

Gift of property

If the transaction is a gift of property, include:

- a copy of the transfer deed.

Section 85 elections (rollovers)

If a section 85 election is made on the transaction, include a copy of:

- a Form T2057, Election on Disposition of Property by a Taxpayer to a Taxable Canadian Corporation; or
- a Form T2058, Election on Disposition of Property by a Partnership to a Taxable Canadian Corporation; and
- all supporting documents including variations, appraisals, and calculations showing how the agreed amounts were determined.

Corporate reorganization

If the transaction is a result of a corporate reorganization, include:

- copies of documents explaining the reorganization;
- a list of steps involved in the reorganization; and
- a corporate organization chart.

Deemed dividends – section 212.1 or subsection 84(3)

If a section 212.1 or subsection 84(3) deemed dividend results from the transaction, include the calculation of the:

- deemed dividend or paid-up capital reduction;
- tax paid up capital; and
- non-resident tax account number.

Trusts and estates

If the vendor is a trust or estate, include the following information as well as documents related to the transaction:

- name and address of the trustee, executor, administrator, or other representative of the trust or estate;
- proof of residency of the trustee, executor, administrator, or other representative of the trust or estate;
- list of beneficiaries and their residences;
- the trust or estate's country of residence; and
- disclosure that a trust is a party to the transaction.

If the vendor is a charity or non-profit organization, include the following information as well as specific documents related to the transaction:

- proof that the organization is registered as a charity for tax purposes in the country of residence.

Joint tenancy, tenancy in common, or co-ownership

If the vendor is a member of a joint tenancy, tenancy in common, or co-ownership, include the following information as well as specific documents related to the transaction:

- a list of names and addresses of all members; and
- the percentage of ownership of each member.

Elections

If you previously made an election on the property, include a copy of the election form such as:

- Form T2061A, Election by an Emigrant to Report Deemed Dispositions of Taxable Canadian Property and Any Resulting Capital Gain or Loss.
- Electing under subsection 45(2), deems the change in use from personal to income producing not to have occurred.
- Electing under subsection 45(3), deems the change in use from income producing to personal not to have occurred.

Note: If there was a change in use and no election was made, provide the fair market value of the property at the time the change occurred.

Payment of tax or security

If you are making a payment of tax, include:

- the trust cheque, certified cheque, bank draft, or money order;
- the bank guarantee; or
- proof that acceptable security has been provided to the Minister.
