

Election or Revocation of an Election to use the Mark-to-Market Method

- Use this form if any of the following apply:
 - you are a financial institution (as defined under subsection 142.2(1)) in the tax year, and you are electing under subsection 10.1(1) for each eligible derivative held at any time in the tax year to be deemed mark-to-market property (as defined in subsection 142.2(1))
 - you are a taxpayer (other than a financial institution) or a partnership, and you are electing under subsection 10.1(1) to recognize your profit or loss for each eligible derivative held at the end of the tax year on a mark-to-market basis under section 10.1
 - you want to request a revocation under subsection 10.1(2) of an election previously made under subsection 10.1(1)
 - An eligible derivative means a swap agreement, forward purchase or sale agreement, forward rate agreement, futures agreement, option agreement or similar agreement if all of the following apply:
 - it is held by you at any time in the tax year
 - the agreement is not a capital property, a Canadian resource property, a foreign resource property or an obligation on account of capital
 - you have audited financial statements for the tax year that were prepared using generally accepted accounting principles in respect of the tax year or, if you have not produced audited financial statements, the agreement has a readily ascertainable fair market value
 - where the agreement is held by a financial institution, the agreement is not a tracking property, other than an excluded property (as defined in subsection 142.2(1)), of the financial institution
 - You can make this election for a partnership if the following apply:
 - you have the authority to act for the partnership
 - you are making the election on behalf of all members of the partnership
- If these conditions are met, and the election is valid for all other purposes of the federal Income Tax Act, then a valid election will be deemed to have been made by each member of the partnership.
- If this is your first time making an election under subsection 10.1(1), mail one completed copy of this election, separately from any other return, to your tax centre on or before your return's filing due date.
 - If you are making a subsequent election under subsections 10.1(1) and 10.1(3), or you are using this form for a revocation under subsection 10.1(2), mail one completed copy of this form to your tax centre.
 - All legislative references are to the federal Income Tax Act.
