Dear Client of Bollinger, Glenn, Guattery, Gunn & McAravy, LLP:

If you are like most Americans, privacy is a big concern to you. We want you to know that we at Bollinger, Glenn, Guattery, Gunn & McAravy, LLP, share your concern.

During the preparation of your tax returns and financial plan you share personal information with the employees of Bollinger, Glenn, Guattery, Gunn & McAravy, LLP. This might include information on applications, worksheets, tax organizers or other documents we use in preparing your tax returns or financial plan. It may also include information we receive directly from third parties such as brokerage houses and banks regarding your accounts with them or information about your transactions with us or our affiliates.

We value your trust and make every effort to continue to deserve your confidence. Protecting your privacy is important to us and your personal information is shared only with those employees who need it to perform the services you have hired us to do. State and federal laws and the standards of the CPA profession pledge us to keep your information confidential unless we are required by a legal authority to divulge the information. Under California law you must give written permission before this information can be shared.

Your personal information is stored in a secure space or on a secure computer. If you ever discontinue your client relationship with Bollinger, Glenn, Guattery, Gunn & McAravy, LLP, we will be happy to furnish you with a copy of the information in our files and will continue to protect and treat the information that you have entrusted to us as confidential. When your personal information is no longer needed, it will be shredded, erased or destroyed before being recycled.

Very Truly Yours,

Bollinger, Glenn, Guattery, Gunn & McAravy, LLP
